

Summer Fun Week Helper Role Description

The NEFC summer fun week is a week of events run by North Evington Free during the summer holidays. It primarily consists of a daily children's club, a daily afternoon football time in the local park (Spinney Hill) and a range of other activities for the community. During the daytime there is also a door-to-door prayer ministry and stay and play for parents and siblings.

Main aims of the role

1. To help in one or more of the activities of the week
2. To be part of the team
3. To share the light of Jesus with the surrounding community

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

1. To fulfil defined roles
2. To prepare and run parts of activities as assigned
3. To participate and support the team
4. To be warm and welcoming to all who attend
5. To support the team leaders

SUPERVISION AND SUPPORT

1. Stephen Bawden, elder and trustee and NEFC, provides overall oversight for the week. Please contact him with any questions.
2. There will also be other leaders who make up the week's senior leadership team and will provide oversight for individual activities.
3. There will be regular team meetings throughout the week to plan, discuss and debrief.
